MALAYSIAN TECHNICAL COOPERATION PROGRAMME (MTCP)

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was officially launched on 7 September 1980 at the Commonwealth Heads of State Meeting in New Delhi, India, to signify Malaysia's commitment to the South-South Cooperation, in particular, the Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

The MTCP emphasizes on the development of human resources through the provision of training in various areas which are essential for a country's development such as agriculture, economy, finance, public management and administration, science & technology and ICT, health diplomacy, safety and security including cyber security, cultural diplomacy, social development, environment-related to SDG2030, education, industrial and technical training. Annually, Malaysia offered more than 60 technical and capacity-building programs under the MTCP, which have benefited more than 35,500 participants from 144 countries.

For more information at MTCP Official Facebook Page:

<https://m.facebook.com/MTCPMalaysia>

OBJECTIVES OF MTCP

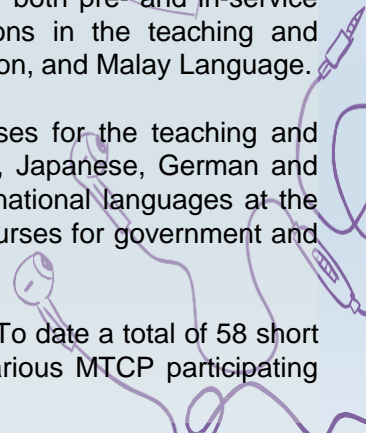

- I. To share the development experience with other countries;
- II. To strengthen bilateral relations between Malaysia and other developing countries;
- III. To promote South-South Cooperation (SSC); and
- IV. To promote the technical cooperation among Developing Countries

BACKGROUND OF TRAINING INSTITUTION

The Institute of Teacher Education, International Languages Campus (aka Institut Pendidikan Guru, Kampus Bahasa Antarabangsa or IPGKBA), which is located at Lembah Pantai in Kuala Lumpur, is one of twenty-seven teacher education institutes under the administration of the Institute of Teacher Education, the Ministry of Education. IPGKBA provides training and accreditation for both pre- and in-service teachers pursuing diploma and degree level qualifications in the teaching and learning of English as a Second Language, Islamic Education, and Malay Language.

In addition, IPGKBA in its expanding role provides courses for the teaching and learning of other international languages such as French, Japanese, German and Korean. Recognising the growing demand for these international languages at the local and regional levels, IPGKBA also offers language courses for government and private sector clientele, including non-teaching personnel.

IPGKBA has been conducting MTCP courses since 2001. To date a total of 58 short courses has been conducted for 904 participants from various MTCP participating countries.
