A word from your HOD

(Nav Krishna Valley School)

Hello Friends,

The most important learning starts when you are born. The first 3 years of a child's life is critical for setting the foundation of language, acquisition, socialization and learning curves. During these early years and especially during the first 3 to 6 years, children are capable of digesting a lot of information. The brain grows more rapidly during this phase of life and well trained teachers along with preschools with developmentally appropriate programmes can have a long term effect on improving learning outcomes for children. We, at Abhyaas, provide all such kinds of facilities.

In Abhyaas we prepare the child where his/her physical, social, emotional, cognitive growth is taken care of. The curriculum which enables holistic development of a child. The environment of 'Abhyaas' gives the child freedom of choice with certain limitations. The material they handle is designed to maximize independent learning and exploration by the child. Environment of Abhyaas encourages the children to move freely around and choose their workplace and activities within limits of rightful behavior. In Abhyaas, the most powerful and natural form of learning is through their experience or activity where they 'do' things rather than just study or follow what they are told to do. Activities with materials are open ended, exploratory and encourages them to think which do not make them compete amongst them for grading /ranks. Daily observations of each child is done by the teacher on the basis of assessment and it gets reported to parents. A child centric learning in Abhyaas aims to develop the individual, social and intellectual capacities of a child. By the handling of material, an 'Abhyaas child' develops his/her fine motor skills, senso motor skills, develops concentration and makes them independent.

When education traverses its path from practical to theory, it becomes more meaningful and productive for the child. Practical to theory is how we learn cooking, to play a sport, to play an instrument. Why then do we choose to follow a route that reduces learning for academic learning? Playing with the right toys can change the direction of learning and make it enjoyable.
